

Windows Journal

Windows Journal is a Microsoft application designed for Tablet PCs. Users can handwrite notes and draw lines or shapes with it. The blank interface looks like a plain pad of paper.

Other documents (like worksheets) can be opened in this program so that students can fill out answers as if they were working on a paper copy of a worksheet.

Click here to learn more